A simpler way to protect your family for a lifetime

Making it easier to protect what matters most to you

We've simplified life insurance coverage so you can focus on what really matters in life. Nationwide YourLife® Whole Life (WL) is straightforward permanent life insurance protection that's reasonably priced. It has a streamlined application process that makes putting coverage in place easy. Plus, it's backed by the financial strength and stability of Nationwide®.

Be sure to choose a product that meets long-term life insurance needs, especially if personal situations change — for example, marriage, birth of a child or job promotion. Weigh the costs of the policy, and understand that life insurance has fees and charges that vary with sex, health, age and tobacco use. Riders that customize a policy to fit individual needs usually carry an additional charge. Protections and guarantees are subject to the claims-paying ability of the issuing life insurance company.

Lifetime protection with no surprises

Nationwide YourLife WL offers premium rates, cash values and death benefits that are all guaranteed, so you can be confident that your policy will be there when it's needed most.

Flexible coverage and payment options

Nationwide YourLife WL gives you plenty of choices for protection, including lower minimum coverage amounts of $10,000, as well as a selection of payment lengths — level premiums to age 100 or for 20 years.

An easier application process

The simple underwriting process used for Nationwide YourLife WL enables you to get the protection you need without all the hassle normally associated with purchasing life insurance. (Please keep in mind that certain policy amounts may require a more extensive application and underwriting process.)

Why whole life insurance?

Life is full of unexpected circumstances. You can't stop them from happening, but life insurance helps prepare you for when they do. Choosing the right life insurance to fit your needs can be a little daunting, so we've designed a quick-reference guide to help you with your decision.

³ Access to your money — This assumes that the contract qualifies as life insurance under Section 7702 of the Internal Revenue Code (IRC) and is not a modified endowment contract (MEC) under Section 7702(A). Most distributions are taxed on a first-in/first-out basis as long as the contract meets non-MEC definitions under Section 7702(A). Loans and partial withdrawals from a MEC generally are taxable, and if taken prior to age 59½, may be subject to a 10% tax penalty.

⁴ Flexible payments — This assumes there is sufficient cash value to cover monthly policy charges. Keep in mind that variable universal life insurance has market volatility, so it's possible that you may need to pay an additional premium on your policy.

Your concerns

- Do you need permanent life insurance coverage?
- Are you interested in securing life insurance protection for your child or grandchild?
- Would you like the option of smaller minimum coverage amounts for obligations such as final expenses?
- Are you concerned that your family's protection needs may change in the future?
- Do you need protection for multiple family members?
- Do you want the predictability that comes with guaranteed premiums, cash values and death benefits?

If your needs are pointing toward whole life insurance and you answered "yes" to any of the questions above, Nationwide YourLife WL may be the right fit for you.

What can I use it for?

Protection for a child

You can help your child or grandchild get off to a great start in life with a Nationwide YourLife WL policy. Whole life insurance offers the ability to lock in a low premium while a child is young, and ownership can be transferred to them later on.

Coverage for final expenses

You can help reduce the stress of paying for final expenses. Your policy can help loved ones pay for funeral costs, hospital and/or doctor bills and estate settlement costs.

Customized coverage for your family's needs

There's no need for you to buy multiple life insurance policies to protect your family members. Spouse and Children's Term Insurance riders allow you to protect your whole family with one life insurance policy. The riders are convertible into policies of their own as your family's needs change.

Funding a buy/sell agreement

Whether you're just getting your small business started or you're thinking of retiring soon, whole life insurance can be a solution to your business-planning needs.

What happens next?

If you've determined that Nationwide YourLife WL is right for you, the underwriting can begin. This simply means we begin the paperwork on the policy.

Your insurance professional will have some forms for you to sign and may need to ask a few medical questions. Depending on the amount of insurance applied for, a medical professional may schedule a quick checkup, including height, weight and other basic medical information. This checkup is often done in your home.

After the application is approved and the first premium is paid, you will receive the policy. You might want to file it with your other important documents and notify your beneficiaries.
